Appointment of Registrar Designate

Summary

The UK Public Health Register is pleased to announce the appointment of Professor Nairn Wilson CBE as Registrar designate. Nairn will replace Fiona Sim who will step down later this spring to take up the Presidency of the Royal Society of Public Health.

Professor Wilson has previously been the President of the General Dental Council (1999-2003) and is currently Professor of Restorative Dentistry and Deputy Vice Principal (Health) at Kings College London and Dean and of the Kings College London Dental Institute.

Professor Wilson

"I am pleased to be appointed as Registrar of the UKPHR. The Register has achieved a huge amount since it started in 2003. This is a period of great opportunity and I am looking forward to working with the new Chair and Board to continue to build on the strengths for the future".

Professor Bryan Stoten Chair of the UKPHR

"We are delighted that Nairn has agreed to join us at this time of great opportunity for Public Health. Nairn brings with him integrity, vision and great experience. The Directors and I would like to thank Fiona for her enormous contribution to the Register over the past nine years. We wish her well for the future in her role as President of the Royal Society of Public Health and will value such an important relationship with a body committed to enhancing public health skills"
