UKPHR's revalidation scheme

Professor Zafar Iqbal, Registrar
Annual Meeting 28 September 2017, Birmingham

Accredited Register

A statutory Programme operated by Professional Standards Authority

UKPHR achieved the standard in April 2014 & annual renewal since.

But registration is voluntary and there is no Responsible Officer system.

Where the GMC leads...

GMC began revalidation in 2012

UKPHR set up a task & finish group to develop revalidation in 2015

Currently, UKPHR requires 5-yearly re-registration: appraisal, personal development plan and CPD up to date

UKPHR and CPD

Continuing Professional Development is a professional and ethical requirement.

UKPHR requires specialist registrants to meet Faculty standard or equivalent .

UKPHR has a differentiated CPD standard for practitioner registrants.

UKPHR and Revalidation

Our Board has agreed the design of a revalidation scheme for all registrants

Takes into account our observations of GMC's and NMC's approaches

Implementation is intended to be in 2018 if possible.

Practitioners

UKPHR and GMC

Many thanks Helen for your illuminating presentation

Thanks also to your colleagues who hosted Pav Sull for a week to learn about GMC's revalidation operations

And thanks to GMC for such a good relationship with, and support for, UKPHR since we were set up in 2003.
